DECATUR, ILLINOIS.Entered at Post Office as Decatur, Illinois, as second class mail matter.The Washington correspondent of the New York Sun says the President will veto the Fitz John Porter Relief bill, if it reaches him.The Cincinnati Commercial Gazette, says the credit of inventing the famous phrase, "To the victor belong the spoils," should be given where it belongs, to William L.
Marcy. It is usually credited to "Old Hickory."The Cincinnati Enquirer states that Senator Pendleton is receiving a great many telegrams congratulations on the passage of his civil service bill, and adds that they are "all from Republicans." The Enquirer thus virtually admits that Democrats are not in favor of this sort of reform.W. IGNATIUS DYER, a builder and contractor of Georgetown, D. C., died a few days ago, from excessive obesity. The weight of the body was 375 pounds, and the casket and its contents weighed not less than 500, requiring four experienced men to assist the ten pall-bearers in carrying the load from the house to the hearse. A casket had to be made especially for the occasion, and was nearly four times the size of the ordinary burial case.At noon tomorrow the two houses of the Illinois legislature will take a separate ballot for United States senator. If Gov. Cullom receives a majority of all the votes in each house the fact will be proclaimed in the joint session which takes place at noon on Wednesday, and no joint ballot will be necessary. If, however, it shall appear that he has not received a majority in each house a joint ballot will be taken, and at least one ballot must be had in joint session each day until some one is elected. The strong probabilities are that Gov. Cullom will be elected by the separate action of the two houses tomorrow, though the parties are so evenly balanced in the lower house that the absence of a single member on the Republican side might prevent a majority.The Boston Journal brings us this new count in the indictment against an article of food.Oleomargarine is now charged with the responsibility of causing diphtheria among children. It may and may not be true; but if it is due to the eating of the variety of greases and fats of which the new style of butter is composed, that this dread disease is so prevalent, the factories will have to put up their shutters at short notice from the people. And they should.Ex-VICE PRESIDENT COLGAN thinks that a season of stagnation is awaiting us next Fall, and that the country will be suffering from a financial stringency. He gives the following reasons:There are four leading reasons The change in the balance of trade, which is now against us, the low prices we are getting for our crops; the extravagance of the people last year, and the very extensive building of railroads. Money put in railroads is not like money invested in manufactures, which if the investment does not prove profitable can be reinvested elsewhere. Railroads once built have to remain, whether they prove profitable or not. I would say, in connection with my prediction, that there will be a financial stringency in the Fall, that the reason causing it are, of course, acting now, but this is a dividend paying season, and the money thus poured into the country is giving a temporary relief which will pass away in a few months.Arrived all the expressions of concern in regard to the adoption of German habits of Sunday observance in this country, it is curious to read that 6,000 persons in the old country have petitioned the Reichstag to enact laws closing all commercial and industrial establishments on the Sabbath.M. P. F. PROVOST, the well-known fur-

The Star of Empire.

The Newhall House fire in Milwaukee recalls the other disasters of the kind that have recently transpired in this country; but the loss of life in all of them combined was insignificant in comparison with the Milwaukee holocaust. The greatest loss of life before was the destruction of the Southern Hotel in St.
Louis, on the morning of April 11, 1877. The fire in that hotel broke out at 1:30 a.m. and caused a loss of eleven lives and the entire destruction of the building. Among the other hotel fires have been those in the following houses: St. Nicholas Hotel, New York, December 10, 1869; Fifth Avenue Hotel, New York, December 18, 1872—eleven lives lost; Ocean Hotel, Long Branch, N.
J., March 1, 1878; Metropolitan Hotel, New York, June 20, 1879; Metropolitan Hotel, New York, January 22, 1881; Manhattan Hotel, New York, December 15, 1881; Parshall House, Titusville, Pa., April 15, 1882; Ocean House, Swampscott, Mass., September 7, 1882; Cliff Hotel, Newport, R. I., August 20, 1882; Sturtevant House, New York, December 17, 1882; Pavilion Hotel, Staten Island, December 17, 1882.

THERE recently died in Maine a woman named Latimer who had a voracious appetite for paper. She literally devoured books, newspapers and all kinds of literature. She would chew up a magazine with the same relish that an ordinary person would manifest in eating a sirloin steak. She was especially fond of printed matter. The ink seemed to add an additional flavor to the provider. She would tear from their bindings and masticate the leaves of books, or if nothing more delectable was at hand, she fed upon common straw wrapping paper, such as the grocers' and butchers' parcels are wrapped up in. She is said to have inherited the curious appetite, and to have begun to chew paper simultaneously with the cutting of her first teeth. Paper was a monomaniac with her. She was an intelligent woman, and indulged in no other freaks. During the closing years of her life her friends had to keep a constant guard over her to prevent her from swallowing the contents of book-cases and despoiling the parlor table of its poetry and its art.

GOVERNOR BUTLER of Massachusetts, is devoting all his energies to defeating Senator George F. Hoar for re-election, but his efforts are not likely to be crowned with success.
His greatest trouble arises from the lack of a proper republican candidate, in the first place, and the reluctance of the republicans to let Governor Butler manage their affairs, in the second place. The last obstacle seems to be the greatest. Ex-Governor Long was Butler's first selection to make the race against Hoar, but Long is reported already beaten, and Congressman Crapo is the next victim. Crapo is really weaker than Long, because he voted for the river and harbor bill, which is precisely the chief ground of objection to Hoar. It looks now at this distance as if Mr. Hoar's election would be secured.

of others: "I am very much obliged to you, sir, for the little concert you have been giving me; you are very

THE FIRE FIEND.

Partial Destruction of the Planters' House,
at St. Louis.

Sudden Death of Hon. Greer-bury L. Fort.

St. Louis, Jan. 14.—A fire broke out shortly after 4 o'clock this morning in the kitchen of the Planter's House, occupying the block on Fourth street, between Pine and Chestnut streets, and extended to the pantry store room and servants' quarters.
These were all in a building in the rear of and detached from the hotel, which was not injured. One servant was suffocated to death, one burned, and two others have broken limbs.

Great excitement prevailed among the guests and other occupants of the hotel.

Nearly 300 people, filled with horrible recollections of the Milwaukee holocaust, were dashing hither and thither through the main corridors and down several stairways into the office and street. The hotel employes acted with good sense and promptness, rapping long and loud on every door, and five minutes later making a second trip to insure that everybody was up and advised of the danger.

Very few waited to dress, as the smoke from the rear building, where the fire was, had already invaded the corridors and was making its way slowly into the rooms, stopping only to grab every article of clothing, men, women and children fled in dismay, and would not halt even in the commodious main office, where there was light, comfort and little smoke.

As the engines, the first of which arrived within 50 seconds of the sounding of the alarm, dashed up to the hotel, a stream of fugitives began to pour from its door. There were men clad in night, but their underclothes, women with but night dresses and possibly a shawl or shawl about their shoulders, and little children hastily bundled in blankets or other wraps.

Few wore shoes, and a great many were in their bare

A CRUEL CANARD.
The report reached Decatur on Sunday that the suspension bridge across the river about a half mile below Niagara Falls, had broken down and that a train of 400 people had been drowned.
No statement about the rumor could be obtained until the following telegram was received:

CHICAGO, Jan. 13.—The report of the falling of the suspension bridge at Niagara Falls was not true. There has been no accident. The story started in a joke.

A gentleman named Jackson, who arrived in the city from Chicago on Sunday morning was seen last evening by a Republican reporter. He stated that the rumor was afloat in Chicago on Saturday morning, and that all inquiries about the matter failed in securing anything reliable.
Any one who would start such a report, even in a joke, should be severely punished in some manner.

Wabash wrecks.

The Chicago express train due here Saturday evening, was abandoned on account of the snow blockade on the north end of the division. Last night a section of a freight train at Cerro Gordo went wrong, about a dozen cars being derailed on account of a broken rail or an open switch. The accident caused the westbound train this morning to be delayed for several hours. One of the tardy trains was 47, on which the Langtry and party had a car attached. At Staunton, on the St. Louis division of the road, yesterday, there was a rear-end freight train collision, which disabled an engine and demolished a combine. Nobody killed or injured.

THE WHEELER CASE.

In the circuit court this afternoon, Judge Smith presiding, the case of The People vs. James D. Wheeler, charged with the murder of Estelle Risley, was called up for trial, and after some delay, the counsel for the defense answered that they were ready for trial. A jury was called at once. The People are represented by W. C. Johns and Hugh Green, and the defendant by W. E. Nelson, I. A.
Buckingham and Mr. Zink, of Litchfield.
The Republicans will not publish the testimony in this case, but its progress will be noted from day to day.

THE ELECTRIC LIGHT.

The first introduction of electric light in Decatur was made on last Saturday night at Dennis Sullivan's place in Commercial Block, on East Eldorado street, by Orendorf & Doyle, grocers. One of the generators of the Fuller patent was used to furnish light for one lamp, or jet, and the machine was operated by the Chicago agent. A three-horse power engine was manipulated by Fred Litterer. It furnished steam pressure of 130 pounds, causing the generator to furnish light sufficient to illuminate the room as bright as day with the one lamp, besides throwing a flood of light through the plate-glass front into the street, which could be seen at a distance of six blocks. There was a great crowd of people at Sullivan's all evening to view the novel illumination.
The machine cost $600 and single lamps $60. The light was not as regular as it would have been, had the operator used an engine of greater horse power. Another test will be made. Mr. Doyle says it is the intention to make the electric light in Commercial Block a permanent thing.

DR. MILLER'S SLIM HOPE.

The recount of the ballots in Marion county growing out of the treasurer-contest dem-bum-bumble case, has attracted the attention of Dr. Miller and his friends at Lincoln. Says the Journal of that place:

"ARTICLE 47," which had such a long run at the Fifth Avenue Theatre, New York, and was played so often by the Furbish Company, is to be played at the opera house on Thursday evening next, with Miss Lillian Spencer as the Creole, supported by a first-class company. Popular prices—$5, 50 and 75 cents.

THE STATE GRANGE MEETING.

The protracted meeting at this church is still in progress, with increasing interest.
The services are in charge of Elder Newcomer, who will preach again this evening.

"HEART RELIGION."

The above was the subject of a scholarly and logical discourse delivered by Elder Pinkerton at the Christian church on Sunday night, before a very large congregation. He selected his text from the 9th verse of the 15th chapter of Acts.
He stated that hearts are purified by faith, and declared that religion is the life to live, not something to be had or obtained.
By quotations from the Bible, the minister showed that the heart imagines, understands, reasons, rejoices, thinks, desires, believes and loves. The heart is purified by faith, and faith came only by hearing and believing the Word of God.
The meetings at this church will be continued throughout the present week. The subject to-night will be "Regeneration." The public generally are invited to attend each evening.

TWO SERMONS.

The Rev. L. G. Powers, of McHenry, Ill., delivered two excellent sermons at the Universalist church on Sunday, before good-sized congregations. The membership are thinking of arranging for a series of religious services to be held at the church, commencing about the 28th of the present month, during which several prominent Universalist divines will preach. Probably Rev. Mr. Crowe, pastor of the Church of the Redeemer, and Rev.
E. L. Conger, of Galesburg, will be among the visiting clergymen.

NOTES.

Rev. W. H. Postley conducted the services at the Presbyterian church on Sunday. His discourses were listened to by large congregations. At the morning service three persons united with the church by letter.

Rev. C. B. Roberts' sermon at the Baptist Church, yesterday morning, was from the Saviour's words to the woman of Samaria.

THE FIRST M. E. SUNDAY SCHOOL is steadily increasing in membership. Nearly 500 in attendance from Sunday to Sunday. Yesterday 487 were present at the services. The time after the lesson is given to singing by a select choir, or by a reading or declamation by some member of the school. All children not in the habit of attending any Sunday School are cordially invited to come and join the one, and they will be placed where they will be liable to learn the most and be taken care of during the hour.

STATE GRANGE MEETING.

The annual sessions of the Illinois State Grange will be held in the hall of Good Templars' Lodge on Jan. 16th, 17th and 18th. There will be from 200 to 300 delegates and visitors in attendance. A free lecture on the "Aims and Objects of the Order" will be delivered in the circuit court room on Tuesday evening, Jan. 16th, by Mr. Elbaugh, grand master of the Missouri State Grange. The public generally is invited to hear the lecture, which will commence soon after 7 o'clock.

THE COUPLING TOURNAMENT.

The firemen's grand coupling tournament will occur at the tabernacle on Wednesday evening next, in connection with which will be given a fine exhibition of bicycle riding of two miles on the stage for a gold medal. The coupling prizes aggregate $25.

ated to me will please call and settle, as I expect to make a change in business about
